PAEtoday

Australia Day Awards | Participate PAE | Community Grants | History Month

The City of PAE acknowledges and pays respect to the traditional custodians of the land on which we stand, the Kaurna people of the Adelaide Plains and pays respect to Elders past, present and emerging. We recognise and respect their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationships with the land. We acknowledge that they are of continuing importance to the Kaurna people living today.

Mayor Claire Boan

Welcome to the first edition of PAE Today for 2023. While it may seem like a distant memory now, we certainly finished 2022 on a high. In early December we delivered our inaugural Dockside Festival — a full weekend of family entertainment in the Port, with a huge street party, and the chance to view competitive sports on and off the river. Later in December we also celebrated the official opening of the Dover Street Reserve in Blair Athol which has been a project several years in the making. At our Australia Day Awards in January, we recognised community members and groups for their efforts and achievements at the local level and you can read more about this year's winners on pages 4 and 5. I congratulate and thank all the winners and nominees for their contributions to making the City of PAE such a connected, vibrant and diverse place to live, work and visit. Since then we were saddened to hear that one of the winners, Fred 'Tiny' Linnell, passed away on 26 February and we extend our thoughts and condolences to his family and friends. In January, the new school year began for more than 13,000 children and young people living in PAE. I'm sure it was a particularly momentous day for approximately 1,500 children who started reception, and for their parents and guardians as well. This year we will be working more closely with local schools through our community engagement programs, and asking children and young people for their perspectives on local matters. Our five Libraries will continue to offer resources and programs for students of all ages — so head down to your local branch to learn more. Fringe time is one of the best times to get out and about in PAE, and this year we were spoiled for choice with more than 60 theatre, comedy, music and dance performances across more than 20 theatres, halls, community centres, pubs, bars and clubs. And while Fringe season might nearly be over, there are always more artistic opportunities on the horizon, with registrations now open for the 2023 South Australian Living Artists (SALA) Festival. Once again, we are offering subsidies for artists living or exhibiting in our City. There are plenty more events on offer right through March, April and May, so visit our website to discover what is on offer near you.

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS

Australia Day Awards 2023

On Monday 23 January, we held our 2023 City of PAE Australia Day Awards, an annual event where we take the opportunity to thank some outstanding members of our local community, whose contributions make PAE a better place for everyone. Congratulations to all our winners and nominees!

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

Sophia Katari

Sophia is the Manager of Junction Community Centre, which aims to create a welcoming, safe, responsive, inclusive and supportive environment for individuals, families and community groups in the local area. With a passion for cultural inclusivity, Sophia has worked tirelessly in community centres for approximately 20 years with many communities and individuals, including people of Muslim backgrounds, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, new arrivals, refugees and people born in Australia. Sophia has been an outstanding contributor to the community and works to promote a greater understanding between diverse communities and minority groups. She creates opportunities for people to meet and share their stories, and to dispel myths and stereotypes.

JUNIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

Lara Ridley

What started out as a school project to create a social enterprise has resulted in Lara Ridley being chosen as one of eight finalists (and the only South Australian) in the Futures Anything National Grand Final. Lara independently developed a cutlery set, the pieces of which are engraved with affirmations to support people suffering from eating disorders. She also created a social media platform and developed a website, along the way gaining the support of both the Butterfly Foundation and the Women's and Children's Hospital. Now that her product is for sale, she donates 30% of her profits to the Butterfly Foundation. For Lara, who has bravely shared her story throughout the process, this has also been a journey of recovery. The resilience, commitment and drive that she has shown have the potential to change the lives of many people.

YOUNG CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

Ruby Holman

As a second-year nuclear medicine student at the University of South Australia, Ruby has volunteered for numerous roles, within the university as well as externally. For example, as an executive member of UniSA's Med Radical Club committee, she has organised numerous events and fundraising initiatives to better both the university community and the greater medical radiation science community. In addition, Ruby illustrated and co-authored a children's colouring-in activity book for paediatric patients who are undergoing nuclear medicine procedures. The book aims to alleviate patients' anxiety and achieve better clinical outcomes for paediatric patients nationwide.

OLDER CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

Norma Martin (joint winner)

Norma has volunteered for 50 years with Meals on Wheels, providing meals from the Northfield Centre to people within the City of PAE community. She started volunteering with Meals on Wheels in 1972. Since then, she has volunteered at the Enfield, Northfield and Modbury Centres, filling nearly every role, including Branch Co-ordinator, Volunteer Co-ordinator and driver. Remarkably, at the age of 89, Norma still drives two days a week with her son — and according to her colleagues, she is the heart and soul of the Northfield Centre.

Fred 'Tiny' Lennell (joint winner)

'Tiny' was a boxing coach for young people on the Lefevre Peninsula from 1965 until 2018, during which time he was a positive role model who taught young people about self-discipline and respect for others. Having fought over 100 amateur bouts and several professional ones, he was also crowned the Australian Flyweight champion. All proceeds from Tiny's Gym and Boxing Club go towards maintaining the gym, developing and rewarding the boxers, and benefiting the Lefevre community. We were saddened to hear that 'Tiny' passed away on 26 February. His loyal team of volunteers remain dedicated to keeping the gym running.

COMMUNITY EVENT OF THE YEAR

Port Adelaide Diversity and Inclusion Film Festival (PADIFF)

The PADIFF is a brand-new film festival in Semaphore that focuses on diversity and inclusion. It encourages people from many different backgrounds — including those from different cultures and ethnic backgrounds, along with people from the LGBTQIA+ community and people with disabilities — to come together under one roof to celebrate cinema. The hope is that, by showing work from a broad range of filmmakers, this new platform will help people across the industry to showcase their work equally, while also creating a better understanding of our diverse community.

EMERGING EVENT OR COMMUNITY GROUP OF THE YEAR

Saltwater Veterans Sailing

The Saltwater Veterans Sailing Project supports the veterans' sailing community and volunteers to connect with each other and the community on, in and around water. With the support of their 'crew' of volunteers and sponsors, the project facilitates free and inclusive sailing for current and former serving veterans and their families. The project is about moving forward, supporting veterans to re-engage through the wonderful, wind-powered kinetic motion that is sailing — and inspiring others with what veterans can achieve beyond their time in service. The growth of the Saltwater Veterans Sailing Project in Adelaide this year has been particularly impressive, while nationally the project has seen approximately 100–150 veterans on the water each month.

SERVICE TO COMMUNITY

Rosco 'Rossco' Johnston (joint winner)

Rosco has a history of almost 50 years of serving the community as a dedicated and respected volunteer for the State Emergency Services, Comedy Capers, Girl Guides and Boy Sea Scouts. He began volunteering in 1970 aged 16, when he joined Prospect Civil Defence as a Senior Sea Scout for the 2nd Prospect Sea Scout Troop. Since then, he has received many awards for his work in this area and has taken on multiple roles. In 2022, Rosco was awarded the National Emergency Medal by the Governor-General, Sir David Hurley, for his service during the Kangaroo Island bushfires. Some other events for which he has volunteered include Cyclone Tracey in 1974 and multiple other floods across South Australia since 1992.

Community Help and Togetherness (joint winner)

Community Help and Togetherness (CHATS) provides a nutritious hot breakfast each week to people living rough and tough in the western suburbs of Adelaide. They aim to bring together people who are socially isolated or who identify as in need. They also provide food hampers, clothing, bedding and a nurse for health and wellness checks, and they pick up leftover bread that would otherwise go to landfill three times a week and distribute it to people in need in the western suburbs. A small organisation run entirely by dedicated hard-working volunteers, CHATS offers hope, connection and a sense of community to those who need it most.

ParticipatePAE

Connecting and Involving you participate.cityofpae.sa.gov.au

We have been working to expand and improve how we interact, engage and foster connections with our community. We want to create conversations between you, your communities and groups — and us. That's why our online community engagement platform is now known as Participate PAE. Participate PAE is the place to go to interact with and shape your community. You can get involved in PAE-wide conversations that matter to you while connecting with local people and PAE programs and staying up to date on local issues of interest.

At Participate PAE you can:

- Find out what's happening: Discover new projects and sign up to receive notifications about topics of interest
- Keep up to date: Stay informed and receive notifications and updates about project timelines, outcomes and decisions
- Join the conversation: Contribute your thoughts and hear from others
- Get involved: Participate in community and neighbourhood projects
- Shape your community: Play a meaningful part in the future of PAE and issues that affect you

ANNUAL BUSINESS PLAN

We will be seeking your feedback on our Draft 2023–24 Annual Business Plan in April and May. The draft plan presents the key initiatives that we intend to deliver over the next financial year to support a thriving, well-connected and healthy community and environment. It also outlines how we will maintain our existing $1.7 billion of infrastructure and deliver services that are both sustainable and in line with your needs and expectations. Your feedback will help shape our City now and into the future.

Community members who have registered to speak can provide feedback directly at a public meeting in the Town Hall at 7pm on Tuesday 9 May.

SHAPING INCLUSION

We have created the Shaping Inclusion online community for people who either live with disability or who care for and support people with disabilities. This is an interactive space where community leads discussions. Shaping Inclusion aims to help more people get involved in shaping our work by sharing their experiences, providing feedback and discussing topics that matter to them.

If you are interested in joining this group, visit Participate PAE to sign up.

DOGS ON BEACHES

One of the key projects you can read about on Participate PAE is the Pups in Public Places project — in particular, the steps we will be taking in 2023 to determine the on-leash and off-leash rules for dogs on our beaches and foreshore reserves.

We want to make sure that everyone who uses our wonderful open spaces has a chance to contribute to the decision-making process — not just residents and/or dog owners. We will be consulting our community further before we make any further decisions about dogs on beaches.

The next step we plan to take is to form a Dogs on Beaches Community Working Group, made up of community members and stakeholders from across PAE, all of whom represent different perspectives and interests. The group will be independently facilitated. This will be in conjunction with other opportunities for you to participate in the conversation — so head over to Participate PAE to stay up to date and find out how and when you can get involved.

ENGAGEMENT ON OUR EVENTS

Opportunities to get together, share and celebrate matter to our community. As a Council, we strive to provide a range of events within our budget and resources that offer something for all members of our diverse community, so that people from every walk of life can connect with each other and share their interests, cultures and talents.

In 2023, we will be inviting you to share your opinions and perspectives on the events you would like to attend. Whether that's fireworks, pageants, festivals or something else, this is your chance to let us know. Head over to Participate PAE to find out more about the Placemaking Model and Activation Principles that we use to inform the events we run — or to join in the conversation and get involved.

GET SHADY

Through the Get Shady initiative, we will provide 300 property owners across our City with a free advanced tree (nursery value $50–$60) to plant on their private land. This initiative will help us achieve our ambitious target to increase PAE's tree canopy cover by 35% by 2050. Follow the project on Participate PAE to learn more about why our tree canopy is so important and see a map of where these trees will be planted.

During 2022 we:

- Received 3,613 contributions from 1,860 contributors
- Welcomed 1,668 new members to our online platform
- Connected with 190 students from 4 primary schools

UPGRADING OUR PLAYGROUNDS

Jack Watkins Reserve

We have made a commitment to upgrade our playgrounds across PAE to ensure that they provide contemporary, diverse and inclusive play and recreational experiences. Recently, we asked you what kind of recreational experiences you would like to see at Jack Watkins Reserve, and how else you would like to use the reserve. We would like to thank everyone for their suggestions, which we will consider for use in the upgrade.

Stay up to date with the next steps of the playground upgrade by signing up with Participate PAE.

Largs Bay Foreshore Playspace

We will soon be replacing the play space at the Largs Bay Foreshore, adjacent to the jetty. We'd like to hear from you what your preferred play experiences are for this space, so keep an eye on Participate PAE to find out when the community engagement will be opening and how to provide your feedback.

Participate for your chance to win!

We want as many residents, business owners and visitors to join in the conversations at Participate PAE, so we are offering three tourism vouchers each worth $150 to Participate PAE users. To be eligible to win one of these vouchers, all you need to do is complete one or more of these activities:

- Create or log in to an existing Participate PAE account
- Update your details, interests and notification preferences

*Competition closes Sunday 16 April.
Winners will be selected at the Civic Centre on Wednesday 19 April.*

TURNING BACK THE TIDE

Protecting our waterways from microplastics

The City of PAE is a rich and diverse region of coastlines, dunes, rivers, wetlands, mangroves, parks and reserves, all home to a range of flora and fauna. Our unique wetlands also play a fundamental role in supporting the ecosystem by storing flood water and filtering out the various pollutants within it.

An emerging issue within waterways around Australia is contamination from microplastics. Microplastics form when plastic from consumer products and industrial waste breaks down into smaller fragments that wash down stormwater drains and out into our oceans and waterways. These fragments become a part of the food chain, ingested by local animals and aquatic life and then, indirectly, by us when we eat them. Recently, the City of PAE partnered with the Australian Microplastic Assessment Project (AUSMAP) to address this issue. AUSMAP runs a citizen science program, training volunteers to collect scientifically reliable data, identify hotspots and help find solutions to slow the spread of microplastics. Together, we are working towards reducing this contamination in PAE. AUSMAP are always looking for more volunteers to assist them. You don't need qualifications or experience — just a passion for clean waterways and a willingness to learn. All resources are provided, including morning and afternoon tea! For more information, please contact Michelle Blewitt at michelle.blewitt@tec.org.au

Scan the QR code for a video to learn more about AUSMAP's research in the Barker Wetlands.

THE FUTURE IS IN THEIR HANDS

Gen Green

Gen Green is a monthly awareness session that gives children and young people the chance to learn more about the environmental changes occurring in our local and global environment. Participants can get involved in sustainability projects and initiatives that help preserve our natural environment and protect it from climate change. Held at the Port Adelaide Library each month, every session includes hands-on experiments or demonstrations, along with the occasional excursion to explore the Port area or participate in another offsite activity. These sessions are aimed at children aged 10–16 years.

VOLUNTEER EXPO 2023

Exploring volunteering in PAE

This year we are hosting an exciting new event to showcase local volunteer opportunities and promote the benefits of volunteering within your community.

As part of National Volunteer Week, which runs from 15 to 21 May, we will hold the Volunteer Expo 2023 at the Klemzig Community Hall on Monday 15 May. Come along to find out which organisations are looking for volunteers, what they are looking for and what kind of opportunities are available in your area. You can even apply for a volunteering role on the day. As a volunteer, you provide a valuable contribution to our community. No matter what your age or skill level, there is volunteer work available if you would like to get involved, support your community and make an impact. Contact our friendly Volunteer Development Officer for more information at volunteers@cityofpae.sa.gov.au

ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVES

Workshops to come

We are looking for community champions, aged 50 years or over, to fill out a survey and share their views about Advance Care Directives (ACDs). We will use the survey responses to design workshops to assist community members to understand and complete their own ACD.

An ACD is a legal document that allows you to:

- Make clear arrangements for your future medical and health care decisions
- Write down your wishes, preferences and instructions for your end-of-life care, along with your living arrangements and other personal matters
- Appoint Substitute Decision Makers to make informed decisions on your behalf if you are unable to do so yourself

Whether you have already completed an ACD, are working on one, or have never thought about it before, your survey responses will help our project team understand the barriers to completing an ACD so that we can support more older adults to plan ahead.

This is a joint project between the Cities of Charles Sturt, Port Adelaide Enfield and West Torrens. To register your interest, please contact Hannah Cortes, Community Engagement Officer, Ageing Well on 0417 878 077 or hcortes@charlessturt.sa.gov.au

April Bin Collections

This Easter, if your bins are normally emptied on a Friday, our truck drivers will empty your bins on Easter Saturday (8 April) instead of on Good Friday (7 April), so please place your bins out a day later than usual.

Residents whose bins are normally collected on a Monday will not be affected by the Easter break, so please place your bins out for collection as usual on Easter Monday (10 April). This year, Anzac Day (25 April) falls on a Tuesday. If your bins are usually collected on a Tuesday, please place them out for collection as usual on Anzac Day.

GET A GRANT THIS AUTUMN

Have you considered applying for a grant?

We provide funding to support individuals and groups who want to help us build an innovative, resilient and empowered community. Whether you are an individual, a community group or a business, you may be eligible to apply.

The following grants are currently open:

- Community Project Grants: For projects that foster individual and community wellbeing for our residents. Closing date: 3pm, Thursday 30 March 2023
- Equipment Grants: To assist not-for-profit community groups and organisations to make urgent or necessary purchases to deliver programs to the community. This round is currently ongoing
- Small Grants: To assist people to deliver projects and initiatives that support community wellbeing outside the scope of our existing grant and sponsorship programs. This round is currently ongoing
- Placemaking Grants: To help develop community spaces. This round will be open until funds are exhausted
- Green Business Incentive Scheme: To provide financial incentives to small to medium enterprises to invest in technologies and measures that will help us create a low carbon, water sensitive and climate resilient City

We encourage anyone thinking of applying for a grant to contact us on ☎ 8405 6600 and have a chat before submitting their application.

Volunteer Shannon at the Parks Library

ALL STITCHED UP

Volunteer Shannon shares her skills

We have many wonderful volunteers working across the City of PAE. Among their ranks is Shannon (pictured), a talented sewing specialist who teaches at the Parks Library. Having grown up in a family of creative people, Shannon started crafting at a very young age, ultimately developing skills in many textile-based crafts. She is particularly interested in exploring sustainable fashion using natural materials and plant-based dyes to create unique clothing and goods. Shannon began attending workshops in the Parks Library Makerspace. Now, through her volunteering work at the Library, she has spent many hours sharing her skills and knowledge with others. Along the way, she says, she has met many amazing people and enjoyed the challenge of solving interesting creative problems.

'I reconnected with skills I thought I had lost ... I don't think the staff and the volunteers realise how much of a difference coming to the Parks Library has made in my life. It has brought me a greater sense of purpose and a connection to community that I didn't have before ... I'm excited to come here! There is always something new and exciting happening.'

Due to the incredible uptake from the community for these services, we are looking for more volunteers like Shannon to teach the joy of sewing. If you're keen to help and are skilled with needle, fabric and thread, please complete our volunteer application online at

LONG LIVE OUR ROADS

Building stronger roads in our eastern suburbs

We are testing out a new road construction method on Blacks Road in Gilles Plains to trial an innovative way to boost the lifespan of our roads. Unlike on the western side of our City, where roads last up to 40 years, the roads on the eastern side of PAE only last about 20 years, due to soil movement. Using machinery on loan from Victoria, the construction method we are trialling on Blacks Road mixes lime and cement with water to create a stronger road base.

Normally used on freeways, this construction method should ensure that Blacks Road will last 30 years, saving money and boosting the lifespan of the road by an additional 10 years.

Western Adelaide Jobs Expo is back in 2023

CONNECTING BUSINESSES WITH JOBSEEKERS

Expo is back!

The Western Adelaide Jobs Expo is back for a second year; this time at a new venue. This free expo is designed to help jobseekers of all ages and stages of life connect with potential local employers, learn about emerging industries and training opportunities, and improve their job-readiness skills.

In 2022, more than 1,100 people, including 300 high school students, attended the first Western Adelaide Jobs Expo at the Lights Community and Sports Centre. Information sessions about interview success tips, resume writing assistance and LinkedIn were particularly popular, and an impressive 85 businesses were present, with 110 jobs being offered on the day. This year's event is set to be just as big, and will be held at St Clair Recreation Centre, 109 Woodville Road on Tuesday 21 March from 10am – 2.30pm.

Scan the QR code to register to meet local employers and learn about job opportunities.

CRICKET WICKETS

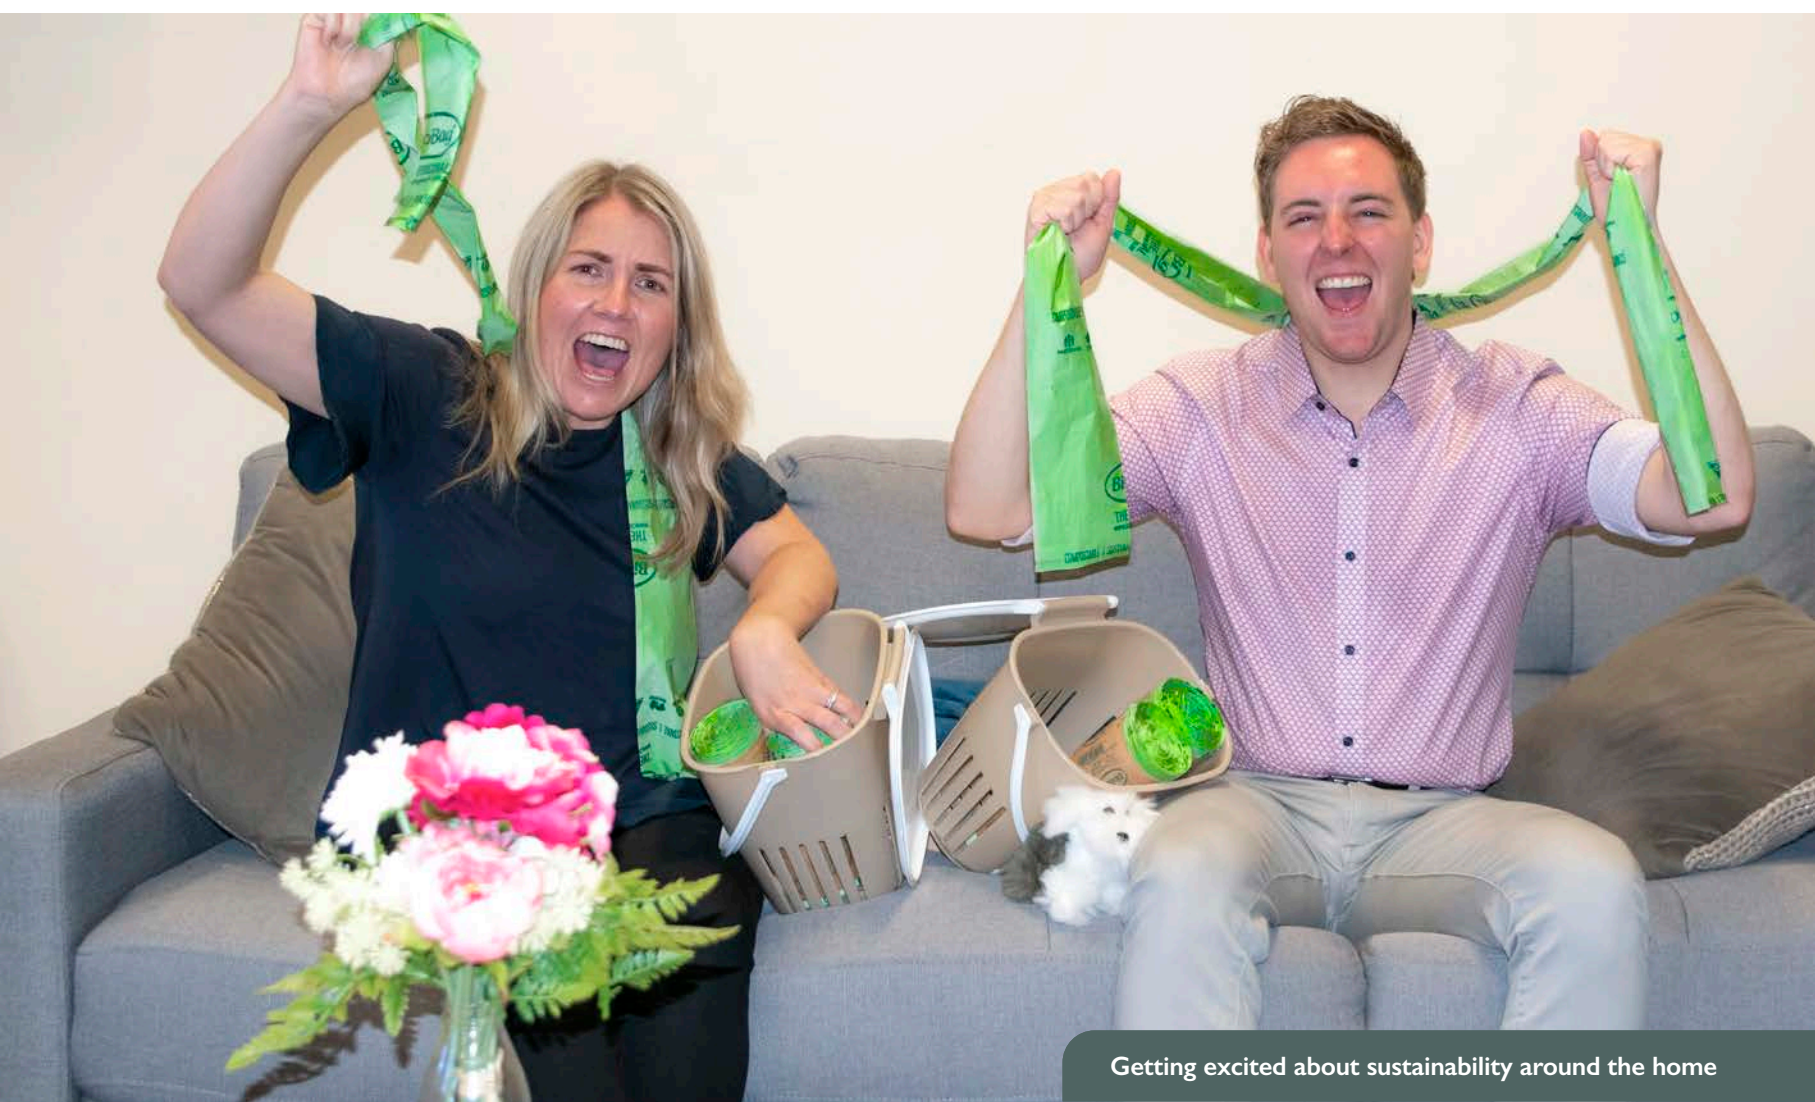

Enjoying summer sports

We look after and maintain public reserves and sporting ovals right around the City of PAE, both for general recreational use and for competitive sports.

Each weekend during the summer, our 15 cricket wickets across PAE take a beating. Luckily, though, our Parks and Garden Team are dedicated to keeping them fresh!

Ben Davies and Matthew Weeks look after nine of our centre turf wickets, which are used for senior and junior games each week. They take great pride in preparing each wicket to the South Australian Cricket Association guidelines, ensuring that it has lots of bounce for a great game. Preparation begins on a Wednesday, when they roll the wicket until it is firm, before leaving the sun to work its magic over the next day. On Friday, they roll the wicket twice more. Finally, they mark lines on the wicket and hand it over for play.

You don't have to be a cricketer to enjoy our reserves, though. Open to the entire community, with fresh, green grassy areas all year round, they are places that everyone can enjoy.
