1. PURPOSE/OBJECTIVE

Council is committed to the principles of transparency and accountability in its administrative and management practices, it encourages the making of disclosures that reveal public interest information.

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that Council:

- meets its responsibilities under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2018 (PID Act);
- encourages and facilitates Disclosures of Public Interest Information in accordance with the objectives of PID Act;
- provides appropriate oversight of public interest disclosures about corruption, misconduct and maladministration in public administration;
- provides appropriate protection for those who make Disclosures in accordance with the Act; and

- acknowledges the need to appropriately support Informants, the Responsible Officer and, as appropriate, those Public Officers affected by any appropriate Disclosure.

2. SCOPE

This Policy applies to appropriate Disclosures of Public Interest Information that are made in accordance with the PID Act by public officers including Council Members, Officers and Employees of the Council, and by members of the public, and is intended to complement the reporting framework under the ICAC Act.

The PID Act provides for protection for Informants where public interest Disclosures are made:

- by a member of the public or a public officer about environmental and health information which the Informant reasonably believes to be true or which the Informant believes may be true and is of sufficient significance to warrant Disclosure, regarding a location within the Council area of a particular council; and/or
- by a public officer with a reasonable suspicion about public administration information regarding either a location within a Council area or a public officer who is a member, officer or employee of the Council.

This Policy is also designed to operate in conjunction with other existing policies, including:

- Fraud & Corruption Management Policy;
- Code of Conduct for Council Employees;
- Code of Conduct for Council Members; and
- Complaints and Grievances Policy.

3. POLICY PRINCIPALS

Council is committed to:

- referring, as necessary, appropriate Disclosures to another Relevant Authority;
- where the Disclosure relates to Corruption, or serious or systemic Misconduct or Maladministration in public administration, reporting the Disclosure directly to the Office of Public Integrity (OPI) in accordance with the Guidelines and the requirements of the ICAC Act;
- otherwise facilitating the investigation of appropriate Disclosures in a manner which promotes fair and objective treatment of those involved; and
- rectifying any substantiated wrongdoing to the extent practicable in all the circumstances

4. DISCLOSURE PROCESS

- Disclosures are to be handled by the Council in accordance with the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure.

- Nothing in this Policy prevents a person from making a Disclosure to a Relevant Authority external to the Council (i.e. the Ombudsman or the OPI). This is a choice to be made by the Informant at his/her discretion. The Council recommends an Informant have regard to the factors at clause 6.4 of the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure when deciding where to direct a Disclosure.

5. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Role of the Principal Officer (CEO)

The Principal Officer is responsible for:

- ensuring that one or more appropriately qualified officers or employees of the Council are designated as responsible officers of the Council for the purposes of the PID Act and undertake any training required by the Public Interest Disclosure Regulations;
- ensuring that the name and contact details of each responsible officer of the Council are made available to officers and employees of the council; and
- the preparation and maintenance of this Procedure in accordance with the requirements of the PID Act and the Directions and Guidelines, in particular the Public Interest Disclosure Guidelines.

The Role of the Responsible Officer

A person designated as a Responsible Officer for the Council must:

- receive appropriate Disclosures relating to the Council and ensure compliance with the PID Act, and the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure, in relation to any such Disclosures;
- make appropriate recommendations to the principal officer of the Council in relation to dealing with Disclosures, including any suggested changes to this Policy or the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure; and
- provide advice to officers and employees of the Council in relation to the administration of the PID Act; and
- complete any training courses approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of the Public Interest Disclosure Regulations; and
- may carry out any other functions relating to the PID Act.

Upon the receipt of a Disclosure, the Responsible Officer will deal with the disclosure in accordance with the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure.

In making any determination or taking any action under this Policy or pursuant to the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure:

- the Responsible Officer may seek legal advice from Council's lawyers and/or guidance from SAPOL or the Ombudsman in relation to the most appropriate course of action to pursue; and
- is authorised to incur costs in accordance with the Council's Budget for that purpose.

The Responsible Officer will liaise as required with the Informant and any Independent Assessor in relation to any investigation process undertaken in accordance with the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure, and will ensure that the Informant is provided with support and protection as necessary and appropriate in the circumstances of the Disclosure.

The Role of an Elected Member, employee or officer of the Council

An Elected Member, employee or officer of the Council is responsible for:

- ensuring they comply with this Procedure and the Public Interest Disclosure Policy when dealing with any Disclosure; and
- immediately referring any Disclosure of environmental and health information made to them by a member of the public, or any Disclosure of public interest information made to them by a public officer, to the Responsible Officer.

6. INFORMATION TO ELECTED BODY

As a matter of discretion, the Principal Officer may inform the elected body, on a confidential basis, of the fact that an investigation of a Disclosure took place and the outcome of the investigation as outlined in the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure.

Protection for the Informant

- In accordance with the PID Act Informant who makes an appropriate Disclosure is protected by:
 - immunity from criminal or civil liability;
 - a prohibition on disclosure of his/her identity;
 - a prohibition against Victimisation; and
 - a prohibition against hindering, obstructing or preventing an Informant from making an appropriate Disclosure.
- The PID Act does not provide any protection to people who knowingly make disclosures that are false or misleading. A person who knowingly makes a Disclosure that is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence and may be prosecuted.
- A person who personally commits an act of Victimisation against an Informant is guilty of an offence and may be prosecuted. Council will take action as appropriate in the circumstances of the relevant Disclosure/s to protect Informants from Victimisation. Such action may include acting in accordance with the risk minimisation steps set out in the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure and/or referring the matter to the SA Police.
- Any Council Member or employee or officer of the Council who:
 - knowingly makes a disclosure that is false or misleading; or
 - commits an act of Victimisation in relation to an Informant; or
 - acts otherwise than in accordance with this Policy or the Public Interest Disclosure Procedure (including with respect to divulging the identity of an Informant) in relation to a Disclosure may also face disciplinary action by the Council or the Chief Executive Officer (as appropriate).

7. CONFIDENTIALITY

- The identity of an Informant will be maintained as confidential in accordance with the PID Act.
- A recipient of an appropriate Disclosure may only divulge the identity of an Informant where one of the following applies:
 - The recipient believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to divulge the identity of the Informant in order to prevent or minimise an imminent risk of serious physical injury or death to any person, and the identity of the Informant is then divulged to a person or authority that the recipient believes on reasonable grounds is the most appropriate authority or person to be able to take action to prevent or minimise the imminent risk of serious physical injury or death to any person;
 - The recipient has been issued with a notice from the OPI advising that the identity of the informant is required by the OPI, in which case the recipient must disclose the identity of the informant to the OPI;
 - doing so is necessary for the matter to be properly investigated (but only to the extent necessary to ensure proper investigation); or
 - the informant consents to his/her identity being disclosed.
- The PID Act does not expressly require any other information relating to a Disclosure (including, for example, the nature of the allegations) to be maintained as confidential, but in considering whether to further disclose other information provided as part of an appropriate Disclosure the Council should be mindful of the prohibition against Victimisation in the PID Act.
- An Informant may wish to remain anonymous, but in that event must ensure that the allegation is sufficiently supported by the provision of necessary details and evidence to enable the matter to be properly investigated.
